Halloween Holiday Caution

For the safety of the animals, the Animal Center will require that black cats and kittens adopted during the last two weeks of October remain at the Center until Friday, November 2.

Success Stories Calendar Available for Purchase on Monday, November 5!

The holidays are just around the corner, and there's no better gift for an animal lover than a 2008 Animal Center Success Story calendar! In fact, you might want to purchase extra calendars and sell them at your office! Each month features an adopted animal and its story, pet-care facts and information, and several smaller photos of adopted Center pets. Stay tuned to the Center's website about having a calendar shipped to you. All calendar proceeds benefit the homeless and unwanted animals in our area.

New Education & Outreach Page at www.knoxpets.org

The Animal Center has updated its Education and Outreach page with information about many new educational programs. They now offer programs for girl scouts of all ages and still offer terrific presentations for students in third through fifth grades. Schedule your program today!

Save the Date—Every Month!

Area Goodwill stores discount items 50% on the last consecutive Friday and Saturday of each month. The next discount days are Friday, October 26 and Saturday, October 27. Mark your calendar for the shelter animals. Why? Goodwill often has a terrific selection of stuffed animals. Stuffed babies are a great way to keep our shelter puppies and dogs entertained. Can't make it to the Goodwill this month? Consider scouring flea markets and yard sales for super savings. Our animals will thank you for it!

Our Most-Needed Donations

- Cardboard box tops or trays (for cat litter boxes)
- Blankets and towels (nothing fancy—we'd love to have your old linens)
- Stuffed animals (clean out your toy box and fill up ours)
